REPORT OF VICE PRESIDENT OF STUDENT ENGAGEMENT & ENROLLMENT SERVICES
Dr. Brandi Hephner LaBanc, Vice President for Student Engagement & Enrollment Services, introduced

Vice President Rodriguez Gonser provided an overview of the #ODUPromise, digital badges and stackable credentials, upcoming program offerings, and upcoming innovations including artificial intelligence implementation work. She shared that digital badges can ultimately stack to a non-credit certificate. Through continuous stacking, students can move from badges and micro-credentials to the full degree, providing the Master of Public Administration program as an example partnership.

Vice President Rodriguez Gonser announced the launch of the following new upcoming online programs effective Fall 2024: Accelerated Game Studies (BS), Counseling (MS
